The Nuppore city municipality have resolved that they cannot meet the extra cost on account of Contribution towards Mr. Venkoba Rao's pay, as the services of that officer were applied for free of charge to the municipality.

4 The question as to whether the Municipal ~~share of the Cost may be waived~~ Council may be exempted from payment of Contribution towards Mr Venkoba Rao's pay was considered in Med 50 of 1912 (selection for Sub 14), and their Contribution was finally fixed at Rs 20/- as they had been Contributing that amount towards Tenpunama Pundit's pay.

If Govt. are prepared to reconsider the question, Rr II with have to be consulted.

5 See 4).

The ground urged by the M.C. is hardly tenable as the Govt order of 1/2/13 was limited in its operation to the then current year in regard to the matter under correspondence. How could the municipality refuse Contribution when it derives benefits from the appointment made with its approval?
